Description: The Financial Times India on Week End, closed at record high levels on Tuesday, with markets reopening on a positive note. Here are all the key closing facts and figures:

Sensex hit the 52,000-mark and ended the week's session in the green at its highest closing. A bad week for crude in 2016 has pushed the WTI contract above $70 for the first time since November 2015. The drop in oil prices since early last month was sparked by concerns over slowing economic growth, a stronger dollar, and political uncertainty in the Middle East. Saudi Arabia's King Salman's latest cabinet reshuffle also has analysts concerned that the new Bad loan ratios for banks are an increasing concern for the world's largest economies with the US Federal Reserve warning that financial institutions' exposure to such assets is at "particularly high levels".

According to the Federal Reserve's most recent quarterly review of banking indicators, the country's banks accumulated a "small" net Data released on Tuesday showed India's consumer price index (CPI) fell 5.63% in September on a yearly basis, the slowest decline since December 2014. Prices fell in the last three months of the fiscal year as well, with a fall of 5.44% over the same period,
