I get this error in the playground: Error: Value of type 'NSDictionary' has no member 'dictionary' This is the line of code that causes it: let header: NSString? = dictionary.dictionaryForKey("API_NOMBRE_AJ") Any ideas? A: From the error message, it looks like you actually have an NSDictionary value, not a dictionary. Try doing: if let header = dictionary.objectForKey("API_NOMBRE_AJ") as? What emerges from this strange saga of Russian history, persecution of the Orthodox clergy, and the Christmas sun on the hillside, is the striking power of the human brain to turn the scariest of situations into a fantasy. If you were thrown into a prison cell, you would feel like Alexei Tarasov, who, from his prison cell, imagines a mansion, a ball, and an exquisite dinner party. The mind, with its abilities of imagination and memory, is one of our most precious realities. Imagine, for instance, the first moments of Alexei Tarasov's prison sentence. The realization that he is going to remain in a cold, damp cell for a very long time. This must have been a very frightening thought. How could he survive these days? Tarasov could feel the warmth of the sun, but he knew it was only an optical illusion. The cell was really in the basement, under the constant cold, and he could see nothing but stone. Nevertheless, the sun gave him a sense of warmth. He thought of a ball in his hands, but he could not feel it. He heard the music of the party, and he dressed in his finest clothes, but he did not look at himself in the mirror. He felt hungry, but he knew he could only eat bread. He turned the key, and the cell door opened. A guard pushed him in. Two more guards were waiting for him in the corridor. Their hands were crossed on their chest, and they were staring at him angrily. Four guards in front and four guards behind! It was the first time Tarasov saw six guards, and he was afraid. He knew that their image as fearsome guards had been made even more terrifying by post-Soviet propaganda. He remembered an episode from his past. He and a group of friends were riding in a car through a village, and they passed a group of young girls playing hopscotch. The girls were carrying buckets of water, and one of them suddenly spilled water on the car. "Let's teach them some tricks," said Tarasov, and they all shouted gleefully. They pushed the bucket on top of the car, but the bucket fell off and broke into pieces. They all laughed loudly, and the girls were mortified. "What are you laughing at?" one of the girls asked them. "It's good luck!" replied Tarasov
