Information sessions on legislative session about the 2018 Census in San Antonio By: Bob Diemling | August 22, 2017 Information sessions on legislative session about the 2018 Census in San Antonio The U.S. Census Bureau administers the census every ten years. The Bureau needs to count a total of about 200 million U.S. citizens. In order to do this, it must first get a count of all the residences in each state, county, and city, and then calculate the number of individuals in each household. The Bureau also counts military personnel living on bases. This is the case for one of our military bases, Fort Sam Houston in San Antonio, Texas. All military personnel stationed at the base must have a census taker to their door within 72 hours. S.B. 14 (by its third reading) requires that the current requirements for military personnel to get the census be changed in
